Map shows access from major routes

From the South: Exit from the M11 at Junction 9 and take the A11. After 3 miles take the slip road signposted Cambridge/Haverhill/A1307. Take the first exit at the roundabout. At the third roundabout, with Addenbrooke's hospital on your left, take the second exit. Continue on Hills Road for 1.5 miles. After crossing the railway bridge, turn right at the second set of traffic lights onto Station Road. Number 30 is a brick building 150 yards along on the right hand side, opposite Microsoft. The car park entrance is to the right of Number 30.

From the North: Exit from the M11 at Junction 12. Take the first exit at the roundabout onto the A603/Barton Road. At the first roundabout, take the second exit onto The Fen Causeway. At the next roundabout, turn left and then immediately right onto Lensfield Road. At the crossroads, turn right onto the A1307/Hills Road. After half a mile turn left onto Station Road. Number 30 is a brick building 150 yards along on the right hand side, opposite Microsoft. The car park entrance is to the right of Number 30.

By train: There are direct train services from London King's Cross and London Liverpool Street to Cambridge. Exit from the station and walk for two minutes down Station Road. Number 30 is a brick building on the left.

By the Babraham Road Park and Ride: To access the Park and Ride exit from the M11 at Junction 9 and take the A11. After 3 miles take the slip road signposted Cambridge/Haverhill/A1307. Take the first exit at the first roundabout and the third exit at the second roundabout. The Park and Ride buses run to Cambridge rail station.

By the Cambridge Guided Busway: The Busway runs north to Cambridge rail station from Trumpington Park and Ride and Addenbrooke's Hospital. It also runs south to Cambridge rail station from Huntingdon, St Ives and the Cambridge Science Park.
