

Joseph Simon-Brown

Associate, Patent Attorney

Joseph is a European and UK chartered patent attorney. He has experience drafting, filing and prosecuting patent applications, in Europe and internationally. He handles electrical, electronic and mechanical patent cases. Joseph practices across a range of subject matter including work in fields relating to optics, digital imaging and semiconductors.

He regularly obtains Community Registered Designs before the European Community Trade Mark and Design Office (OHIM). In addition, Joseph prosecutes design patents throughout the world, having an appreciation of the individual territorial requirements. He also advises on the availability of unregistered design rights.

Joseph joined J A Kemp in 2011 and became an associate in 2016.
